SCHEME FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF NEW STRAY CATTLE SHELTER HOUSES / GOSHALAS UNDER STATE PLAN FOR THE YEAR 2021-22

1. Background

Out of the total Cattle population in the State, 83 lakhs (84%) are indigenous cattle and 16 lakhs (16%) are Crossbreed cattle. In view of diminishing role of the male cattle in agricultural operations due of extensive mechanization, male cattle are either poorly maintained or let loose by the owners which form a sizable proportion of the stray cattle population.

As per livestock Census, 2019, there are about 1.52 lakh stray cattle in the State. These animals lead a difficult life due to lack of proper feeding and health care measures. Many a times it is observed that, the stray animals and let-loose livestock become a causative factor for road accidents, traffic infiltration & road blockage especially in and around urban areas. Currently there are 43 Goshalas in the State that provide shelter to these animals & provides feeding and health care measures. But these facilities are inadequate considering the high stray animal population. In such a situation it becomes imperative that stray cattle shelter houses/ goshalas are established and made available across the state especially in the urban areas with all facilities like health care, stall feed, etc. This scheme will endeavor to fill this gap and provide requisite services to uncared for animals.

2. Objective

To encourage establishment of new Stray Cattle Shelter Houses/ Goshalas in the State for providing shelter to old, destitute, stray Cattle through Voluntary Non-Government Organisations working in the field of animal welfare.

3. Components of the Scheme:

Minimum Specifications for Construction of Stray Cattle Shelter House /Goshala

1. Specifications for the Site:

- a. The land should not be uneven, undulating or abrupt slopes as it increases the cost of setting up of the Goshala.
- b. The land should be porous with gentle slope so that drainage of rainwater as well as waste from various management activities is efficient, and the Goshala remains dry.
- c. Minimum land for 50 adult animals should not be less than 01 acre of land whereas 02 acres for 100 nos. of adult animals.
- d. Generally, 1/3rd of the total area should be provided with shelter while 2/3rd is kept open/ unsheltered.
- e. Proximity to grazing land is beneficial as cost of feeding would reduce.
- f. The land identified should comply with the “Guidelines for environmental management of Dairy farm and Goshalas” recommended by Central Pollution Control Board.

2. Specifications for the Stray Cattle Shelter House:

- a) In tropical/sub-tropical climates, longitudinal axis of cattle sheds should be in east to west direction. Design should be such that Cattle must move freely and get protection from scavengers/ adverse weather.
- b) Housing should provide natural lighting and ventilation.
- c) Floor space per animal- about 3.5sq.m
- d) Feeding manger length 60-75 cm per animal
- e) Water trough length 45-60 cm per animal.
- f) Dimensions of manger/ water trough (cm) Adult cows 60 cm width, 40 cm depth, 50 cm height of inner wall.

Handwritten signature and date: 12.8.21

- g) Animals should have continuous unrestricted access to clean drinking water.
- h) Flooring should be pakka non slippery with proper drainage so that cow urine can be properly collected in a tank. The floor should be laid over a firm foundation, height of which should be normally 50-100 cm above ground (and should be made higher in areas where heavy rainfall and dampness in soil is expected).
- i) Two manure pits for disposal of dung should be made away from the shed with about the size of 2 metres X 1.5 metres with a depth of a minimum 2 metres in order to accommodate the dung for about three months. This manure has to be emptied every three months and can be sold or given away to farmers. The Goshala may set up Gobar gas plant, vermi-compost at their level to utilise the dung.
- j) The storage room/godown should be with floor space of 700 Sq ft with height of 12 to 14 ft.
- k) Every stray cattle must get free roaming space of at least 50 sq ft. (excluding shed).
